

VI. ABSTRACT

A new and improved apparatus is disclosed for reducing the glare that is present in side view mirrors at night from headlights from other vehicles. The apparatus comprises a standard side view mirror that has an extra layer, with the extra layer being either a layer of tinted glass or smoked glass. The layer of tinted glass or smoked glass would be located on the outside of the standard rear view mirror.

2025 RELEASE UNDER E.O. 14176